Section 13-40. Short Title.

This Article shall be known as the “City of Austell, Georgia Vacant and Foreclosed Property Registry Ordinance.”

Section 13-41. Findings and Intent.

This ordinance is adopted to address the interest of public safety.

- (a) The governing authority finds that there is a need to establish a foreclosure and vacant real property registry as a mechanism to protect property values in neighborhoods for all property owners.
- (b) Due to the lack of adequate maintenance and security of properties that are foreclosed or where ownership has been transferred after foreclosure, the property values and quality of life of neighboring properties are negatively impacted.

Difficulties also often arise in locating the person responsible for the condition of foreclosed real property. The governing authority finds that there is a substantial need directly related to the public health, safety and welfare to comprehensively address these concerns through the adoption of the provisions in this article.
